Customer Reviews

Hidato® is supplied by Gameblend Studios and created by Israeli computer scientist Dr. Gyora Benedek. Online: Hidato.com

Love Hidato and this one is not too hard or too easy.

A great variation of Sudoku.

I am not smart enough for this but the woman likes it so as long as she is happy life is good right?

Good puzzle concept, a nice brain exerciser, I hope more editions are published in the future, it can be addictive....

Hidato (also known as Hidoku - with both names available through ) is an excellent companion to Sudoku. Hidato and Hidoku require a different form of logic, when compared to Sudoku. Typically, Hidato and Hidoku solve a bit faster but carry their own set of logic challenges. Highly recommended for number puzzle folks.

Working thru the puzzles on lazy Sunday mornings

I sit in front of the tv and crank through these books. Love 'em all! This is one of the better ones, though wish there were some more difficult ones. I bought another one (identical) since I enjoyed it so much!

My husband tired of Sudoku and we discovered this.... really keeps occupied when in a waiting room or on long trips....
