This is a great book! The recipes are detailed and easy to follow and the results are fantastic. You won't be sorry if you add this to your collection!

best thai cookbook!

A friend told me our favorite Thai restaurant (which is no longer there) used this cookbook

I have a friend that is Thai and he swears by this book. Great simple recipes. No unnecessary ingredients. A timeless classic. It's the only Thai cookbook that I bother to own.

Absolutely the best! I have several Thai cookbooks, but this is always my go to book. Very clear and easy to follow instructions and all the recipes really capture the flavours of Thailand. My copy is dog-eared, fish sauce stained and held together by copious amounts of tape (I've had it for nearly 30 years). When it finally gives up the ghost, I will definitely be replacing it!

I had the pleasure of taking a cooking class from Kamolmal Pootaraksa in August of 1986. I have tried almost all of the recipes in the book with success as long as I keep to the instructions. Kamolmal comes from Bangkok Thailand where her family has owned and operated a Thai restaurant for 3 generations. She placed a lot of care in the cooking class and also in her cookbook. She sincerely wants Americans to learn the secrets of Thai cuisine. I'm ordering 2 more books to keep in case I lose my original. It is the only book I do not loan out to anyone.

I have five Thai cooking books and this is by far my favorite. It has easy to follow instructions with descriptions of desired results, such as "stir fry until golden brown but not crispy", instead of "stir fry 5-7 minutes". Most all of the recipes I've tried are delicious and I return to them time and time again. And all of the ingredients required are easily available at your asian market. This isn't the newest Thai cookbook out there, but it's the best one I've tried.

Another gift and I believe well received. Thank you for the great opportunity to shop for gifts for others in ease and comfort of home.
