Jeramy and Jerusha Clark lead the student ministry at Tri-Lakes Chapel in Monument, Colorado, where Jeramy is associate pastor. He is also the author of the best-selling book, I Gave Dating a Chance. He formerly served as lead associate in the high school ministry at First Evangelical Free Church in Fullerton, California, where Jerusha also was a leader in student ministry. Jeramy is a graduate of Talbot Theological Seminary; Jerusha, of Rice University.

I was very satisfied upon receiving this product which also arrived in a timely manner. It was in the condition I expected it would be and it made a wonderful Christmas gift.

This is an excellent book. I wish that I could have picked it up in my earlier years of dating. Jeramy's approach to dating is the most Biblically sound that I have ever read. I think so many people today that read his books underrate him. They compare his writings to Josh Harris' and others. His books are not completely similar to other authors, like most people interpret them to be. Jeramy and Jerusha's use the Word of God (the final and ultimate authority) to instruct Christians how they should conduct their dating lives. Jeramy and Jerusha write about how God calls us as Christians to live a life of holiness. I would recommend this book as well as "I Gave Dating a Chance" over any of the other Christian dating books out there. Whether you are dating or not, this is a book every Christian teen should have on their bookshelves.

I've read dozens of books on dating, and this out of all of them provides a clear picture of who I need to look for and who I need to be. "I Gave Dating a Chance" was a great book that really laid the foundation for biblically based balanced dating. If you haven't read that then make sure to grab that. I was excited to hear that they were giving writing a chance, again. They truly topped themselves. This book communicates with sincerity a bold call to maintain high standards. Rather than just saying "I want a Christian guy/girl" the reader is educated on the specifics. I found myself checking my own personality constantly while reading this book. How am I becoming a HOT person? Still a work in progress for sure, but now with more of a focus, growth is inevitable. Working in High School ministry and being constantly bombarded with questions on this specific topic, it is nice to have a concise answer in paperback form. I would recommend this book to anyone who desires to date and eventually marry a person after God's heart.
