Customer Reviews

Since I had my second stroke in 2007, I have had increasingly great difficulty reading small print. I bought large print hymnbook at one point to help me with this, but it was very heavy for me to lift. When I found this version of the hymnbook on Kindle, I was so excited to have the words of the hymns as large as I needed them to be to read them. Now I use it in my meetings and I can sing along again. The only two drawbacks to this version is that the music itself does not appear, only the words, which is difficult for little sung hymns. Also, I think this may be my own problem in navigating on the Kinle, but I find it hard to navigate from one hymn to the next easily. As I work with the book, I am sure ill learn new "shortcuts" to getting from one place to the next.

Yes, it is words only. So if you know this before you buy it, it's perfect. I use this to sing songs to my kids at night, which I already know the tune for. A great quick reference. We can pull it out and sing in car pick up line, before bed, on road trips, in hotel rooms...You have all your reading material right in one spot which now can include your hymns.

LDS Hymns as advertised

I already know most the melodies and you're normally singing in a groups, so not having the music is not a major problem. This is a great help for being able to sing along in meetings. Since we're constantly traveling, this will be useful for us. Of course, music would be a help, but then I wouldn't be able to enlarge the words as easily and as an old person, larger text is more useful than seeing (and not being able to read without reading glasses) itsy-bitsy notes. It would be helpful for the next update if they added the hymn/song number to each page like they have on the Table of Contents -- just 71 - With Songs of Praise. That way if you want to just page to the next song, you can do so easily.

Really excellent for Family Home Evenings, Seminary classes, etc. or just to listen to. Since they have music and words they are nice to sing along with. Often children are self conscious about singing without accompaniment.

I love he songs and especially the children's songs. It is fun to hear the children sing. I recently taughtthe children in Primary and they were so precious. Sometimes they yelled them but that's okay too.I have gone to Church and Primary all my life and still remember some of the songs we sang long ago.

I was very disappointed, there isnt even an index to find a song you want. big waste of money! P.J.

Excellent
