Seaside Gifts: Inspirational Romance (Seaside Romance Book 2)

Synopsis

From award-winning author Gayle Roper comes a new contemporary romance in the beloved town of Seaside...Nan Patterson has finally found her niche: operating a boardwalk gift shop in the quaint beachfront town of Seaside. Everything is perfect--until valuable items start just...showing up. At worst, they've been stolen and abandoned in her shop. At best, someone doesn't realize they've lost them. Either way, Nan knows she's out of her depth. Time to call in the local police. Officer Rog Eastman has bigger worries than a bunch of misplaced treasures—but it is his job to help local shop owners. The fact that she's adorable doesn't even come into the equation. Especially since he's sworn off women for the foreseeable future. But there's an imp at work in the background. Someone who knows exactly what these two people need: each other!

Customer Reviews

The message was good about grace and gift it is to us. This was brought out in the book but really this book was a slow read. I enjoyed enough to keep reading but wouldn't recommend it unless you were in junior high. It has a nice Christian message, a clean romance, and a simple story with a predictable ending. The writing was good but not memorable and the characters likable.

Seaside Gifts is a wonderful Christian romance. It is a story of new beginnings, faith and God's marvelous grace. The author has a great writing style and the characters were very believable. If you enjoy a good clean romance I highly recommend this book.

A light sweet tale that was a delight to read, but with a punch of spiritual truth that sticks with you. The way Gayle Roper used the story to get across the subject of God's free offer of grace was refreshing and so much fun. If you want a story that is sad and incredibly serious, this is not the book to read. This is a very funny book with wonderful characters that you want to read about again and again! Looking forward to the next book set in Seaside and I can't wait!

I liked this book in particular because I'm from NJ. It was a cute story but far too easy to figure out the "leaver".

Worth reading!

Love the setting--who would have thought to set a novel in a seaside souvenir store?! Gayle has a clever way with words, and this book has one that is particularly special. Gayle's writing style pulls the reader right into the plot and her character development is stellar. A good book to curl up with and enjoy.

I found this story to be uplifting and funny! Really enjoyed the characters and their walk with God and life!

Great Writer good book.
