Customer Reviews

Absolutely love this book! Six books in one makes this a great deal. But, far beyond that, I love the songs!! Cindy Berry has always been a favorite, and this book does not disappoint. I often receive positive feedback when I play from this book, but it takes minimal practice (I would say that I am a late intermediate/early advanced pianist with practice.) Often I have little time for practice, so this has become one of my go-to books. The arrangements make the songs seem more difficult than they are. So glad to have this book!

I absolutely love this book! Taking the guess work out of what to play on Sunday. Separated into months with appropriate songs for particular holidays or just regular days. Intermediate level so no practicing for days on end!

Great book for any church pianist or an intermediate pianist who enjoys playing hymns. There are some pieces which are pretty easy for an intermediate pianist to run through, and others that may require more practice to play decently. I love Cindy Berry and think this is one of her most useful collections to purchase as a small church pianist. For those more professionally trained pianists, this book might be rather simple and not challenging enough, but it's perfect for me.

Not as advanced as I would have liked, but since I have played for over 15 years and taking lessons for 12 years, a lot of things are not advanced enough for me. LOL Overall, I liked the songs. I added a few things here and there, but it gave me some great ideas.

A great collection of traditional hymn arrangements by Cindy Berry. They are not difficult to play, although they sound rich and full. A traditional congregation will really enjoy hearing the hymns of their youth in these powerful arrangements.

Excellent! I love it! Nicely arranged pieces that sound great and don't require hours of practice.

Since I have ordered two of Cindy Berry's sacred piano "What Can I Play.." books, I knew this would serve my needs and be enjoyable to play privately and for the many church services. The selections don't take a ton of practice, but sound like they are for accomplished piano. It was a very economical buy!!! Carol Reichert - part-time church keyboardist.

A lot of hymns found in this book are found in the Lutheran church hymn books. There are specific hymns as well as general types of hymns which tie in with specific, often hard to find music for Sundays.
