This book gives a picture of what life is really like inside Cuba . The author, Yoani Sanchez, details her everyday life as she struggles to find food, deal with water shortages, lack of electricity, and the long lines waiting to use her ration card at the government food store and her disappointment when her turn finally comes and the shelves are empty.Easy to read; heart-wrenching.

Just reading the Introduction to this book gives you a clear picture of Ms Sanchez talent as a writer. Her impeccable Spanish prose and her superb vocabulary gives the reader a satisfying experience that she is writing as an old friend. Her candor, her fidelity to the truth, her moderation, her tenacity in the face of daily complications, her audacity in confronting obstacles, makes her an uncommon individual worthy of all prizes and accolade which she has received.

Cuba libre rescata en forma de libro el itinerario virtual del blog GeneraciÃ³n Y, a travÃ©s de reveladores textos y fotos, muchas de ellas tomadas por la propia SÃ¡nchez, que retratan la Cuba de hoy.Yoani tiene una excelente manera de escribir. El libro me lo prestaron y quise comprarlo, pero es una pena que sea tan caro y este fuera de mi presupuesto.
