Customer Reviews

Michelin's Zoom maps are simply the best maps you can lay hands on. The scale for this one is 1/160,000, which allows for outstanding detail. The "zoom" feature is that these maps zero in on the areas of greatest interest so you will have more information and detail without the actual map being much larger than a standard Michelin regional series map. We "road tested" the Provence Zoom map on a recent trip, and just as with the Dordogne Zoom map, found it much more helpful than the GPS in the car. If Michelin produces a Zoom map for an area you're visiting, just get it. No other maps come close.

We intend renting a villa in Provence, France. We wanted to be near to Aix-en-Provence so we needed a detailed map to show us where these properties were situated. This map is on one side of the paper only, but even so, don't expect to be able to open it in a car? It's really something you need to plan your trip well ahead of time. It's basically a map of the entire Camargue region. At the side it maps out the streets in the various towns you might want to visit - Nimes, Avignon, Aix-en-Provence, Marseille, Montpellier, Arles and Montelimar. They have a cute little checklist at the side also. Basically reminding you to check your tires, oil etc. Bring a First Aid Kit and any signs you might need if you break down somewhere. Car seat for a child, water, snacks, toys and tissues.

Also your passports! I think the thing I like best about this Map is the fact the print is very bright and makes road and highways and such, very easy to read.

The best.

This was a lifesaver when our phone data wouldn't work or was too expensive. We were able to successfully navigate without GPS!

excellent

Found this map easy to read, 'zoom' was just what we needed during our travels. I recommend it to anyone who is making their way through this area....
