Robin Gauldie first visited Egypt in 1981, when he travelled through Sinai, visited Cairo and journeyed along the Nile to Upper Egypt. Based in London, he is the author of numerous travel guides.

We're heading for Egypt and I wanted a good map. This appears to be fine. The whole country is on one side with Cairo in detail on the reverse. It's not a pocket map (unless you have a very large pocket); it's more of a road map with some extra information in inserts. It's currently unfolded on my wall as a poster.

What can you say about a map? It's a map! Good quality paper and thorough detail
