Learn To Paint People Quickly (Learn Quickly)

Synopsis

From intimate portraits to bustling crowds, this practical guide by bestselling artist Hazel Soan teaches budding painters how to paint people . . . in just a few hours! For many of us, learning to paint is a lifelong aspiration—and popular artist and writer Hazel Soan distills the information that matters most into this essential guide. Best of all, even beginners can master her techniques—which include proportion and perspective and using different media—quickly. Soan’s simple exercises and step-by-step demonstrations explain how to depict people in a variety of poses and settings, insert them into already-existing paintings, and place them into a variety of scenes, from city streets to idyllic beaches.

Hazel Soan is a popular and successful artist who divides her time between London and Cape Town, exhibiting her work widely. She has her own gallery in Fulham, London; is the author of eight bestselling books for HarperCollins; and has made several successful DVDs. Hazel was one of the art experts in the popular Channel 4 TV series Watercolour Challenge. Her successful books include Learn Oils Quickly, Learn Watercolour Quickly, Essence of Watercolour, and Watercolour Rainbow (all published by Batsford).

A friend showed me this book & I liked it. With practice, I should be able to paint more natural looking people.

interesting way to paint people -good thing to learn!

Mostly paintings by the artist and the colors she used in the various mediums. Some general instructions with reference to her paintings a but not the how-to examples I was looking for.If you're looking for a how-to book, there are many others out there that are better.

Very helpful...!

Nice

I am enjoying this book very much. I have always had a hard time making people stand in a relaxed manner. Working with this book is helping me overcome the problem.

Hazel is a gifted teacher and artist. Love this book, and all her books!

Awesome book!
