Customer Reviews

I cannot wait to fix every single recipe in this cookbook. I became interested in learning to cook Central American food on a recent trip to Belize where I learned there is a huge difference between rice and bean and beans and rice. I also had some exposure to Guatemalan food as well, which tends to be a lot more spicy (hot) in comparison. Some of the recipes need clearer instructions, but if you are a seasoned cook, it shouldn't be too hard to figure it out. A few are a little too sugary for me, but can be modified to a certain degree.

This is an awesome cookbook! I love how detailed and easy to read the recipes are. I am made the Latin chicken and rice tonight and it was so good! We are trying the lentil bagoto tomorrow! It is well written and easy to follow! Good job!

Recipes seem simple enough. But I am very disappointed that every recipe does NOT have the name of its country of origin. I would have liked to know which one was from Costa Rica, Nicaragua, etc.
