Customer Reviews

Amy Knapp was a businesswoman with a promotional advertising company when her daughter contracted meningitis at the age of two months. Realizing that she was going to have lifelong challenges and disabilities, Amy sold her business to become a stay-at-home mom, only to find that her organizational tools didn't help her be productive in a home environment. To fill the gap, she created Amy Knapp's Family Organizer, now in its sixth year with accumulated sales of over 500,000 copies. She lives in Kalamazoo, Michigan.

I have used this planner for 3 years and its layout is perfect for me still. This year's planner has many of the same things I have loved in past years: It has the month view and a weekly view which is essential in my opinion. Also the same is the to-do list, perforated grocery list and menu planning section on each week. It also still has the necessary pocket at the front to store miscellaneous papers/ unused sticker pages from previous planners. As in every other year, they have the stickers for planning but don't be shocked when you see the stickers changed. I think they updated these stickers to suit the more modern woman with it now having "volunteering", and got rid of the party sticker in favor of "girl's night" stickers. The doctor sticker was more visible last year (last year's was red and this one is white) but I know that's just nit picking. Also, this year's color is pink instead of last year's green, not sure how I feel about this color. Nothing that would stop me from buying this awesome planner this year or in the years to come though : D Please forgive my stickers being messed up in the pictures, my 2 year old son is going through a sticker phase haha.

Bought one of these planners last year...I will never be without one of Amy Knapp's family organizers! What a fantastic way to keep everything (and everyone) organized! The sides of each page have a meal planner and a grocery list, which can be ripped out, without destroying your normal day section. I highly recommend this planner!

This is a great calendar. I like the size. I don't get why they just don't make 14th month calendar instead of 18 months. If you purchase one every year, you waste 6 months. I end up tearing out and tossing the months I do not use. Why not just make November-January, 14 months?

I love this planner! This is my second one and I believe I will get one every year. It helps me stay organized and motivated.

I've been buying this for I think 4 years now. The only thing I wish that it had a different title on the front. I use this for my catering business because I like how much room I have to mark down events and make notes etc.

Easy to organize your life's happenings and make your life a little bit easier! For any mom like me balancing the household activities from grocery shopping to Dr appointments to gymnastics to the twins sporting events, this is a huge help

I really like this organizer and have been using one each year now for several years.

Absolutely could NOT live without this!!! With being married And raising 3 children, this had changed my life! I did not get this at a discount I just wanted to review!
