It not only provides a cornucopia of practical information and cultural insight, but takes the traveller on a splendid journey through the extensive map of the Russian soul." - Isabel Allende - "As the designer of Russia's first ever golf course in Moscow, I and my international crew had the pleasure of using Ms Nordbye's guide extensively as we placed the Reds on the Greens! A definite 'Don't Leave Home Without It!'..." - Robert Trent Jones, II - "

Informative. A little out of date, but useful, I hope.

Easy to read and comprehend. Very helpful if you want to learn about the country, its past from the very beginning. Current events in the news fail to give a good picture of this great nation. I felt it is worth spending my dollars and my time reading the stories, descriptions and nice pictures.

This book is providing me with the history and travel information I need as I prepare for a St Petersburg to Moscow river cruise. It is easy to read, well organized, and the pictures are beautiful.

A very good resource on our trip from St. Petersburg to Moscow. A good review each evening on the sites seen during the day, but much more information from the book.

Good guide.

Everything I wanted to know and more. It is well written, well presented and very rich in content. I was delighted.

This is a fabulous description of the part of Russia most of us will see. It is carefully crafted and easy to read.

This is a handy book for travelers who are going on the St Petersburg to Moscow river trip on a Russian boat..
