A beautiful tool for introducing children to the interconnectedness of all of life! My kids have used divination cards before and especially love Steven Farmer's, but they've never had a deck so perfectly aligned with their interests. The guidance in the accompanying book is just right, with each appealing animal giving voice to children's genuine feelings and concerns while leading them gently to their own inner knowing. Parents will love the insightful tips for extending their kids' understanding and suggestions for additional integration of the concepts. An absolute must for today's conscious families! Each card has a beautiful animal illustration and excellent message. These cards are very positive and inspiring for children and adults as well. Let your child pick a card and then have a discussion about what it means and how they can apply it to their day.

Bought these before going on a trip with my 3 nieces ages 7 and 5 (twins). I had to read the cards and book for the little ones but the older one was happy to show me she could do it herself. The cards opened up a fantastic dialog about friendship, moral values and life lessons. They enjoyed the cards so much they asked to take them home.

My 5 year old loves these cards

My 9&12 yr old love them. They use them to practice on their classmates. It always fascinates their classmates and teachers when they do so

Cards were beautiful and arrived quickly. Just wish cards were smaller for kids hands.

Love it! The cards are lovely and the messages delightful! The accompanying little book is quite impressive to delve even deeper into the full meaning of the card, followed by activity suggestions to implement that energy and thought into real life practice. Very nice!

Thank you, Dr. Farmer!! My daughter loves these. I purchased a tarot bag from another site, and I gave her these as a gift. She loves looking at my cards, but not all images are child-friendly. She really enjoys having her own deck, and I don't have to worry about what she is seeing.

This deck was purchased for my daughter and she very much enjoys having her own cards to work with. They are illustrated in a very age appropriate manner with very simple messages for the kids to read, learn and work with. The guide book is geared towards older children or kids aged 7-9 reading level.
