Jungle Doctor's Africa (Jungle Doctor Series Book 7)

Synopsis

Jungle Doctor and his team have their work cut out for them as they tackle meningitis, leprosy and other illnesses. It's just that very often in Africa each new day brings joy and sadness, love and loss. But with the love of Jesus Christ there is always hope.

Customer Reviews

See, smell and hear Africa through the eyes of Dr. White, other missionaries and the various Africans you will encounter in this story. You will develop an affection for the people you will meet through Jungle Doctor's stories - these were real people and they will touch your life, as they touched others when the stories you read about actually happened! It's interesting to read about the medical treatments from the side of the Witchdoctor as well as the western medicine that was practiced at the time. These stories will appeal to anyone interested in medicine or science and they are somewhat biographical which also has an appeal. When you read about the experiences of the doctor and others, you better understand the hardships, sacrifices and joys that are experienced by those who embrace the missionary life of self-sacrifice. Certainly, the Christian people in these stories share their faith, yet it is not preachy, it is a simple statement of their faith. I recommend this series to anyone who enjoys stories that "really happened". They are a quick read, and leave us wanting to read another adventure in the collection.
