Grand Canyon Loop Hikes II

Synopsis

George Steck's intimate familiarity with the Grand Canyon Outback resonates in his detailed descriptions of six off-trail loop hikes through remote wilderness. He combines practical information with superb storytelling and humor to create a worthy successor to his warmly received Grand Canyon Loop Hikes I, called "a model of readability and usefulness" by Backpacker Magazine.

Customer Reviews

Just what I needed to plan my next canyon adventure. Steck's knowledge of the back country is still the best.

This book fleshes out some out of the way places to go to on the North Rim in particular. The author definitely knows his way around the backcountry of Grand Canyon.

I was glad to find this vintage book which is the only one to cover adventurous hikes on the North rim of the Grand Canyon

Lots of info in text and maps. Covers areas most GC guidebooks don't. Also describes hikes that some hikers will find too difficult or scary to complete.
