Great little book. Just what I was looking for. I was raised Catholic & went to parochial school. I remember learning about all the saints. Now I'm getting older (and forgetful) so this brings back wonderful memories! My husband also likes learning about all the "Saints".

This is such a nice book to learn a bit about each saint. It is comprehensive and thought provoking. I was looking for a few daily books and this was one of three I purchased - it is by far my favorite - so much so that I sent one to a relative! I am three months into the daily readings and look forward each day to what I will learn about a saint. I highly recommend this book to learn more (or first time) about saints - it has piqued my interest on some that I am reading more in depth about their lives.

I love this calendar and use one every year. Grateful to find it at .

Wonderful daily readings. Light and enjoyable, as well as thought provoking!

I like daily readers and the like. This book combines lives of the saints with inspirational writings. Sure helps me!

I've had my own copy of this book for about 25 years.....I read It every morning! I bought this one for my best friend...I wanted her to know what a great way to start everyday it is.

In the Catholic Faith there are almost countless saints. We can learn from them as they are Saints because they gave it all to Christ and sometimes that all was their life. If you think you have it hard, the Saints preceeding us had more trouble. Why, they dif not even have hot and cold running water! And we complain!!! Thank you to all the Saints in Heaven and not just those in the book.

I am enjoying my daily touch with the saints in 365 Saints. The brief bio about the saint is alwaysuplifting and applicable to the readings of the day. I also like the one sentence "assignment" for the day.I'm glad I have it for the year!
