So all the DK peekaboo books are our favorites (My son received one for his first birthday and we gave been in love with them since). But this one is special as it has become of bedtime ritual story.

My son even opens the flaps in the dark!

This whole series is terrific. The simple writing, colorful photographs of children and dolls and the whole "peekaboo" concept captures the interest of young children. My 14 month old twins can't get enough of Bedtime Peekaboo. They no longer will let me read any other book at bedtime! My whole family gives this book five stars!

Charming story, beautiful illustrations and sturdy, well made book. I plan to buy every one for my little grand baby.

Wish there was more touch sensory parts to this book.

My son loves this book! We read it every night before bed. The touch and feel in this book is not super great, but that doesn't stop the both of us from enjoying this book together. He loves to lift the flaps and look at the pictures underneath and gets a kick out of me saying "Peekaboo!" each time he lifts the flap. The last page is cute, because instead of saying Peekaboo it says Shhhhhh so that we don't "wake up the sleeping toys." We definitely enjoy reading this together before bed each night.

Cute book. I used it for a welcoming gift for a baby.

This, too, has been one of my 14 month old's favorites. The flaps are nice and big, so easy for him to use. Then, the flaps open to reveal a touch and feel item, which I think is just kind of a nice little bonus!

Love it.
