The Penguin Guide To The Dordogne (Penguin Handbooks)

Synopsis

The author lives part of each year in Turnac in the Dordogne, the region of France most visited by English tourists. This book combines scholarly, literary, gastronomic and historical perspectives, but is designed primarily to be useful and immediately accessible to a visitor who might know little or nothing about that part of France. Chapters on history, food and wine, architecture and so on will be followed by a detailed gazeteer based on major tourist centres.
