Customer Reviews

This new edition of Barron's ACT incorporates approximately 45,000 new words of material designed to reflect the most recent changes to the ACT. Among the major updates to this edition:

- Totally new writing chapter, writing tests, and sample essays to reflect the new ACT essay format.Ã Â Comparative reading passages in every single practice test. Additional statistics and probability questions in the math practice tests. New strategies and practice to reflect the possibility of either 6 or 7 passages on the science section. I am confident you will find this book to be the most helpful and up-to-date ACT preparation available.Ã Â Thank you, Brian Stewart

This book is great for prep on the ACT. My granddaughter has spent hours doing test then studying and then doing another test. I believe this book will be instrumental in her get the highest possible score for her on the ACT.

This book is an outstanding resource for students to use in preparation for the ACT. It provides comprehensive, detailed, and thorough information about the ACT. It also includes excellent practice questions, beneficial study strategies, and extremely valuable guidance. The use of the book along with the CD can really benefit students as they prepare to take the ACT.

Love the organization of this book. The review section is organized very effectively, which helped me while studying. The book give a clear outline of what to expect, it would bold or underline the materials you are expected to know.

Great book.

Great book for studying :) Ill be taking the test in a few yrs so this will help me get ready for the real thing.

Great , great, great book to prepare for the ACT. With taking the three test for each subject it really gets you ready for taking the ACT. Full of great tips to increase test speed.

Useful study guide.
